

ALBUQUERQUE EVENING HERALD
(Con't from Tribune Citizen) A REPUBLICAN NEWSPAPER.
BY THE HERALD PUBLISHING CO.

Published every afternoon except Sunday at 123-124 North Second street, Albuquerque, N. M.

Entered as second-class matter March 7, 1911, at the postoffice at Albuquerque, N. M., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

One month by mail..... $5.00
One month by carrier..... $6.00 One year by mail..... $5.00
One year by carrier..... $6.00

Telephone 67.

CALL FOR MEETING OF NEW MEXICO REPUBLICAN CEN-TRAL COMMITTEE.

X will shortly hold for a meeting of the members of the Territorial Republican Central Committee to be held at Santa Fe on the 1st instant in Monday evening of September X, 1911, for the transaction and consideration of such business as may be deemed proper.

Each member of the committee is earnestly requested to attend in person. All persons throughout the territory having an interest in the republican cause at heart are invited to be present.

H. H. BISHOP,
Attn: G. D. REED,
Secretary.

IT WON'T WORK.

In the (Brown) Morning News, the new Pecon valley daily, appears a "Special Correspondence" from Albuquerque in which it is stated that if the Republican state committee recognizes the Republican organization in Bernalillo county, and turns down the Gilpinader crowd, then the pseudo chairman and his little clique will at once go in with the Democrats for a fusion ticket which will be supported by the Morning Journal of this city.

This is exactly what the Democrats and the Gilpinader crowd are figuring on as their last resort and it is being put out at this time in the belief that it will terrify the state committee and prevent it standing by the organization in this county.

It is the old familiar stunt on the part of the Gilpinader crowd but it will not work this time. The state committee will simply tell off our Republican party friends; it can not do otherwise. In that event the Gilpinader crowd, which consists of a few offenders in this country who want to hang on to their offices, will go in for a fusion with the Democratic and attempt to defeat the Republican ticket.

That is the brand of Republicanism professed by the Gilpinader clique, and, being what it is, it does not deserve consideration at this or any other time from the Republicans of the state or county, and it will receive none.

The Gilpinader clique might just as well begin fixing up its fossilized treaty and begin the work of fighting the Democratic party openly, for that is the position it will occupy in the coming state and county election.

THE OLD MARE.

R. A. Patterson, a Lyon county, Kansas farmer, is advertising an auction sale that will be held at his place on August 20, and among the articles to be auctioned is a good mature, 28 years old.

She is a remarkable old mare, and her picture should be in the Sunday papers. No other mare ever attained such an age. Horses and mares sometimes reach the age of eight years, and occasionally a particularly venerable one, 10 or 12 years old, is discovered by scientists, but 28 years has always been the limit.

For how we find a mare 28 years old, and Mr. Patterson makes no effort to reduce the number of her birthdays. There is something new under the sun.

ARE YOUR TAXES LOWER?

The fusion reformers put in office by the Gilpinader crowd a few years ago are boasting that they have reduced the taxes and instilled business methods in county affairs.

The tax rate, however, has increased to 7 per cent in spite of the fact that there has been a corresponding increase of 29 per cent in assessed valuation.

This is probably considered good business methods by the Gilpinader crowd, but the taxpayer who foots the bills may think otherwise.

How about your taxes?

Reyes and Madero each has made a pledge as to the next presidential campaign in Mexico that he will abide the result of the ballot, whatever it may be. It seems that "real republicanism" is not flourishing much more in Mexico than some other places.

Senator Works of California also proposes regulating the publication of news in newspapers, withholding certified copies of criminal convictions and fines so general. The plan has its merit but also its dangers, and doubtless is almost more confusing than pertinent.

A former inmate, "Mabel," has been taken from the Louvre in Paris and is now serving as paving stone left in place with the work and lock it. Possibly the young artist also had in mind the financial as well as the esthetic.

One way of economizing is to consider that it is better to have a man work a full term of court in two years in Bernalillo county, is to have the kind of economy that the courts actually have obtained.

Now, the crop expert says that late rains can not save a crop even brought out by drought in July. It was time for somebody to tell this in order to teach more hot air that even the drought supplied. And Mabel says it well.

The New Jersey hotel keeper who has issued an order prohibiting his waitresses talking to male travelers will rescind it. If he is not soon without waitresses he will soon be without male travelers.

Mr. Bryan is once more a grandfather through the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. William Bryan, Jr.
The boy, owner of the "Platte," has now faded completely on the horizon of Nebraska.

Precious one reason why the people chairman clings so desperately to the job is in the hopes of getting enough money into the county treasury to pay him that $12,000.

Politics does not always pay. A bandit was arrested in Colorado yesterday because he was so polite to the ladies on a stage coach he robbery that they recognized his voice later.

And doubtless there are some places in Texas where they will refuse to believe that a Dallas couple were frozen to death on Pike's Peak in a snow storm Monday.

The announcement comes from Kansas City that the price of meat is going up again. Well, everyone ought to be used to it by this time.

As samples of economy, that 4 per cent paid over to Mr. Heaven and Mr. Grangefield still is prominently before the public.

If we had our choice, the next place we would like to go would be to that statehood celebration by the Elks of Hinton.

A. W. Bikker Saw New Mexico at British Museum, Including Burros; Strikers Have Things Own Way.

A. W. Bikker, a local man who returned a few days ago from his former home in England, has very interesting stories to tell of his experiences across the water.

Mr. Bikker was much impressed by the very fine exhibits of New Mexican products and resources which he saw in the British museum, and also by the fine collection of southwestern animals and birds in the zoological garden. These included birds of all sorts, and one particularly fine bald eagle, presented to the museum by a resident of New Mexico. Battle-scars were a feature which attracted a great deal of attention, and the battle scars of which there were many, were of great interest to the English children, who fed them bread and butter. There were also several coyotes and a number of tarantulas and other insect life specimens.

Mr. Bikker was much impressed by the strike of the railway workers in England, and the collection was surprisingly good, and that he had no idea a country so remote from England and so little known abroad would do so well represented. England was also represented with animals and birds.

Strikes Have It All Their Own Way.

According to Mr. Bikker, the recent labor trouble in the United Kingdom had only the end they must inevitably have had, for the strikers had things entirely in their own hands. He said that they were very well organized and that when one struck, all struck, and those unions which were not actually called out did everything in their power to help the strikers. He said that the strike of the railway employees tied up the electric light plants and generally created a very strenuous situation. According to reliable authority he had members one as far away as Paris were losing $2,000,000 a day while the strike continued, and that it had not yet settled as the strikers wished as yet even England's army and navy could have controlled it had the demands of the employees not been compiled with.

Mr. Bikker brought back a remarkably fine collection of English coins including some of the last issues for use in the thirteen colonies, dated 1776. He also brought back a number of fine oil paintings belonging to his father, many of them valued at several thousand dollars.

He and his son returned on the "Cymric," one of the latest and largest ocean steamers afloat.

Over the hills and far away,

An old man lingers at close of day,

Now that his journey is almost done,

His battles fought and his victories won--

The old-time honesty and truth,

The trustfulness and the friends of
youth,

Home and mother--where are they?

Over the hills and far away--

Over the hills and far away!

The old-time honesty and truth,

The trustfulness and the friends of
youth,

Home and mother--where are they?

Over the hills and far away--

Over the hills and far away!

The old-time honesty and truth,

The trustfulness and the friends of
youth,

Home and mother--where are they?

Over the hills and far away--

Over the hills and far away!

The old-time honesty and truth,

The trustfulness and the friends of
youth,

Home and mother--where are they?

Over the hills and far away--

Over the hills and far away!

The old-time honesty and truth,

The trustfulness and the friends of
youth,

Home and mother--where are they?

Over the hills and far away--

Over the hills and far away!

The old-time honesty and truth,

The trustfulness and the friends of
youth,

Home and mother--where are they?

Over the hills and far away--

Over the hills and far away!

The old-time honesty and truth,

The trustfulness and the friends of
youth,

Home and mother--where are they?

Over the hills and far away--

Over the hills and far away!

The old-time honesty and truth,

The trustfulness and the friends of
youth,

Home and mother--where are they?

Over the hills and far away--

Over the hills and far away!

The old-time honesty and truth,

The trustfulness and the friends of
youth,

Home and mother--where are they?

Over the hills and far away--

Over the hills and far away!

The old-time honesty and truth,

The trustfulness and the friends of
youth,

Home and mother--where are they?

Over the hills and far away--

Over the hills and far away!

The old-time honesty and truth,

The trustfulness and the friends of
youth,

Home and mother--where are they?

Over the hills and far away--

Over the hills and far away!

The old-time honesty and truth,

The trustfulness and the friends of
youth,

Home and mother--where are they?

Over the hills and far away--

Over the hills and far away!

The old-time honesty and truth,

The trustfulness and the friends of
youth,

Home and mother--where are they?

Over the hills and far away--

Over the hills and far away!

The old-time honesty and truth,

The trustfulness and the friends of
youth,

Home and mother--where are they?

Over the hills and far away--

Over the hills and far away!

The old-time honesty and truth,

The trustfulness and the friends of
youth,

Home and mother--where are they?

Over the hills and far away--

Over the hills and far away!

The old-time honesty and truth,

The trustfulness and the